“Our achievements are attributed to our hard-working associates who create memorable experiences for every guest,” said Gregg Herning, vice president of sales and marketing at Peabody Hotels. “Guests are assured we will provide our signature Peabody Service Excellence® throughout each visit, and delivering on this promise is what has made us a leader in the hospitality industry. We look forward to building upon our legacy with unforgettable experiences for all who visit.”

Designed to transform Central Florida’s meetings and convention industry, The Peabody Orlando has served more than 8.4 million guests and currently employs 1,192 associates in the local area. It is a landmark in the popular International Drive Convention and Entertainment District and located adjacent to the Orange County Convention Center; although, it was once the only hotel neighboring the first phase of the convention center. Over the years, The Peabody Orlando’s world-class service played an integral role in this area’s development as one of the most desirable locations for meetings and convention attendees. Its leadership among hoteliers continues to support growth and innovation within the hospitality industry.
